Jane Lewis 2019

To your health, dear tree to the depth of your root,
To your health, dear tree to the tip of your shoot,
To your health dear friend as I take your hand,
May peace grow in these troubled days
May we learn more loving ways
May there be fruitfulness – wassail!

9. Edinburgh Wassail

Tune: The Birkin Tree, arr. Penny Stone

Words: Pat Abel, Jane Campbell, Beryl Holman, Jane Lewis, Georgia March, Fergus McInnes & Penny Stone

Chorus:

*Come gather in the orchard,
Raise a cup to apples,
We'll celebrate our common roots,
And we'll all sing a wassail.*

1. The winter nights are darkening,
With pruning let new growth begin,
We'll rest before we greet the spring,
Singing by the firelight.

(Chorus)

2. The frost releases now its hold,
Sunlight melts the winter cold,
Upon the branches buds unfold,
Slow the sap is rising.

(Chorus)

3. The blossom and the buzzing bee,
Union of the apple tree,
Working hard for all to see,
Sweet the nectar's promise.

(Chorus)

4. Summer turns to autumn now,
The fruit hangs heavy on the bough,
The sun's good gifts our lives endow,
As we join the harvest.

(Chorus)
